Chris & Tad

Out Nov. 21

The new full length from Chris Ballew of The Presidents of The USA and Tad Hutchison of The Young Fresh Fellows:

The Chris and Tad bio is.....

Chris was little.

Tad was little.

Chris grew up.

Tad grew up.

Chris saw Tad in The Young Fresh Fellows.

Chris learned from Tad how to rok.

Chris played in The Presidents.

Chris quit The Presidents.

Tad said that they should get together and not do anything they didn't want to do.

Chris thought that sounded like a good time.

Chris and Tad played shows and made funny.

Chris plays the organ and guitar at the same time.

Tad plays drums that are tiny and makes them sound big.

Chris and Tad play live and folks jiggle with laughter.

Chris decides that he wants to be in a different band,

and so with the idea that they wouldn't do any thing they didn't want to do,

Chris turns The Giraffes (his recording project), into a live band.

With limited time on their hands and with Tads career as a top notch graphic illustrator and sublime comic-genius-artist-painter man on the rise, they stop playing live.

But in the mean time they managed to make a chart busting hit record called "Moments and Selections".

They are very proud of its vacuous smile factory like character, and... they know you will enjoy it....

Selling/Marketing Points:

*The Chris and Tad Show is Chris Ballew of The Presidents of The USA and Tad Hutchison of The Young Fresh Fellows.

*Initially started as a "challenge band", where as each band member was allowed to make only one trip to the car for equipment...all you could carry in one trip was what you had to play simultaneously....So as history goes, Chris made the trip with a guitar, an amp and a keyboard = Chris plays Guitar and keyboard at the same time, sometimes playing the keyboard with a guitar pick or the headstock of the guitar. Tad got the job of hauling the Drum kit...how can you make one trip with a full kit you ask?...get a childrens set with a 15" bass drum, 1 cymbal, a 7" snare and 2 tiny, tiny toms = also know as the "childrens set"

*The music here was written for Tad's television cartoon show, "The Shelby Jenkins Show", an animated cartoon featured on local TV....They began by writing the theme song for the show, "Shelby Jenkins" (track 1).

*Chris and Tad have been recently writing for local commercials, cartoon series, and television theme songs.

*Key publicity to press and radio.

*Can you say talent?
